

Mauricio Ramirez

Colombia National University 2004

2nd semester of 2002, I received the first place in the category of publishing design of the lounge of design of the National University of Colombia.

The same year I won a contest for the design of the logo symbol of fifty years of the Faculty of Economic Sciences of the National University of Colombia.

October, 2003 I was an exhibitor inside the photographic sample " Fragments of reality ", summoned by The Major Mayoralty of Bogota, The Cultural center Municipal Theatre Jorge Eliécer Gaitán and Natural Gas E.S.P.

1st semester of 2004 as part of the Cultural Group Viacritica, I realized workshops of formation on video and cinema forums in the locality Tunjuelito.

Consecutively I realized my first book illustrated on the paradoxical relation of images of industrial objects with prominent figures and facts of other historical, still unpublished until this moment.

During 2nd semester 2004 I was part of five finalists of the First National Contest of Electronic Arts, organized by Intel in Alta Tecnología's Center CAT of Bogota.

December 2004 I won the first place in a contest called Panóptica of the National Museum of Colombia for young audio-visual producers with the short animated Motive Rhizome.

March 2005 I was selected as one of ten writers to be published in the book of the contest of The campaign "Libro al viento" and the company Transmilenio of Stories in Bogota with the story " A zebu being rumoured to the ear".

On October 2005, I was on 2nd place in the Latin-American Festival of Digital Cinema Atel with the cartoon short " On returning to Fotópolis " in the category of professional animation, this festival is realized in Maracaibo, Venezuela.

November 2005 I was member of a group in Artbo, International Fair of Art of Bogota, Lounge Artecamara with " 8 animations of Colombian art ", work outlined in El Tiempo and Caracol Channel.

During March 2006 I was selected as the winner of the contest "Velvetina", realizing a video in animation for the singer Miguel Bosé, these summons were done for the whole Latin America by the channel htv of Miami and it will be the official video of the song " I stop the horizon " of Miguel Bosé.

In November 2007 I won the national lounge diversity, organized by Gallery Casacuadrada in Bogota - Colombia with a piece of Video-Art called Ink. This work was chosen from amongst 300 offers from all over the country.